

February 13 – Loving One Another

Icebreaker Question:

1. If you could pick one smell in the world, and you will smell like that for the rest of your life, what would it be?
2. What's the first thing you do when you get out of bed in the morning?

Sermon Discussion:

3. The sermon was about loving one another this weekend. Pastor Reggie talked about the priority of loving each other and the practice of loving each other. What was one thing that stood out to you from the sermon?
4. 1 Corinthians 13 is a famous passage dealing with the priority of loving one another. Can someone summarize what Pastor Reggie said about the historical situation at Corinth when Paul wrote this?
5. What are some ways Christians tend to struggle with loving each other?
6. Why is love more important than intelligence?
7. Why is love more important than faith? How do you maintain a balance between loving others and staying true to God's word? What causes tension between the two?
8. Pastor Reggie mentioned that love is more important than generosity because so often we give with incorrect motives. How can we keep our generosity in check to ensure that we are giving with pure motives?
9. What's a tangible way in your life that you put forth effort to love people around you?

10. Are you by nature an empathetic person? Are there people or groups with whom it is easier for you to empathize?
11. How can we as a group do a better job of loving one another?

Close in Prayer.
