

Life Group Discussion Guide

June 16 – 1 Peter 3 – A Victorious Life

Icebreaker:

How did you observe Father's Day this year?

Discussion Questions:

1. Read 1 Peter 3 aloud. What verse(s) stood out to you? Why was this especially impacting?
2. What are some of the principles of loveliness? How can women in particular highlight the beauty of Christ in the way they live? What would set a Christ-follower apart from the culture's definition of femininity?
3. What are some of the principles of chivalry? How can men in particular highlight the sacrificial service of Christ in the way they live? What would set a Christ-follower apart from the culture's definition of masculinity?
4. Kindness is a supremely powerful force. Tell one place/time that kindness made a difference in your own life or in the life of someone you know.
5. Think about the question, what would Jesus do if He were me? What quickly comes to mind as you consider your daily work, your family relationships, your neighbors, etc. Are there any changes you automatically know you need to make? Conversations you know you need to have? Prayers you need to pray?
6. How does "theology in isolation" cause one to become an idolater?
7. Have you witnessed a Christian handling slander, marginalization, or suffering in the darkness of this world in a way that caused their evangelism to accelerate? How did life change occur as a result?
8. Have you considered Satan once held you captive and there's a supernatural power in overcoming sin? What does it look and feel like to walk in the supernatural victory we have in Christ?
