November 28th – Christmas Villains – Family Conflict

Icebreaker Question:

1. What are your Christmas plans this year?
2. Any favorite Christmas traditions?

Sermon Discussion:

3. In the sermon, Zach talked about navigating family conflict at Christmas. He mentioned 4 practical ways we can avoid conflict. The first way was to make a schedule. Are there any tips you calendar people have on how to manage holiday calendars effectively?
4. What calendar tools have been most helpful for you in time management? How has calendar management helped your marriage?
5. What's the best gift that you got or are getting for someone else for Christmas? How do you and your family practice generosity each year?
6. Zach talked about being careful to not allow yourself to be 'triggered' this year at Christmas. What are some topics that are sensitive to you right now? Are there any people that are 'triggering' to you?
7. Lastly, Zach mentioned that Christian families are formed by servants. What are some ideas for how families can create a culture where being a servant is valued and modeled?

Close in Prayer.
