

Life Group Discussion Guide

May 4: 1 Samuel 2 & 3 --- Responding to God's Call

Icebreakers:

As a kid, what was the funniest or most unusual thing you ever misunderstood someone saying to you?

If you had to describe your childhood self in one word, what would it be—and why?

Discussion Questions:

1. What stands out to you about Hannah's attitude toward God in both her prayer and her offering of Samuel (1 Sam. 2:1–11)?
2. How do we become people who are quick to praise in the middle of hard circumstances? Why is this a necessary act for us? What do we miss out on if we don't praise?
3. How does Samuel's early life reflect humility and faithfulness (1 Sam. 2:18–19, 26; 3:1)?
4. In contrast, what do we learn about arrogance and spiritual failure from Eli's sons (1 Sam. 2:12–17, 22)?
5. Why do you think God held Eli accountable for the sins of his sons (1 Sam. 2:27–29)?
6. How does God's judgment on Eli's house (1 Sam. 2:30–35) help us understand His expectations for spiritual leadership?
7. How can we cultivate hearts like Hannah and Samuel—humble, prayerful, and open to God's voice?
8. In what areas might you need to repent of pride or passivity, like Eli, and instead embrace God's call with obedience?
9. What might responding to God's call look like in your life this week? How might you model the quick obedience of Samuel?
