

Life Group Discussion Guide

October 1 – The Gospel Comes to Europe (Phil. 1:1–3; Acts 16)

Leaders note: do not feel the need to go through EVERY question. Find the ones that best fit your group, and let the discussion breathe.

Icebreaker:

1. What was the last handwritten letter you wrote to someone and why?
2. What was the most meaningful handwritten note you've ever received?

Discussion Questions:

3. In these verses, Paul refers to himself as a "servant" and to the Philippians as "saints." What do you think Paul meant by these terms, and how do they reflect his relationship with the Philippian church?
4. Why do you think Paul includes the phrase "grace and peace" in his greeting? What significance do each of those words hold for the recipients of his letter?
5. How important is unity within a church community, as implied by Paul's reference to "all the saints" in his greeting? What challenges might arise in maintaining such unity?
6. What does it mean to you personally to be a "saint" in the context of your Christian faith?
7. How do you see the concept of servanthood being lived out in your church or Christian community?
8. Can you think of examples of "servant-hearted" people in your life?
9. What does it mean for you to be "in Christ Jesus"? What are the benefits of being "in Christ"?
